2) The Supdt. of Police, North Kanara has now forwarded a bill for Rs 11-14-0 being the C.a admissible to the police who escorted the accused to Sagar.

3) The procedure to be followed in the matter of the recovery of charges incurred in escorting prisoners surrendered to and by the Bombay Govt. is contained in G.P. no. 13564-53-T1147 dt 17.2.02 & the Resolution of the Bombay Govt no. 5455 dt 7.9.96. These refer only to the maintenance & conveyance charges of prisoners and these are to be borne by the side which demands the surrender. It therefore seems that the claims of police officers escorting prisoners do not come under the purview of these orders.

4) Two cases in which the charges on account of prisoners have been accepted have been traced & put up. No case in which C.a. to the escorting police has been accepted is traceable.

5) In these circumstances it is a matter for consideration whether the C.a. claimed in this case should
